- (4) CTU is the continuator of the Institute of Engineering Education, established in 1707 by an Emperor’s edict and transformed into a polytechnic institute in the years 1803–1806. CTU is a successor of the Czech Polytechnic Institute of the Kingdom of Bohemia, which was created after the division of the Royal Polytechnic Provincial Institute in Prague in 1869. From 1879, the name Czech Technical High School was used. Since 1920, the name of the university is Czech Technical University in Prague.
- (5) CTU’s direct predecessor is the Czech Technical University in Prague (a university pursuant to Act No. 172/1990 Coll.).
- (6) The abbreviated name is ČVUT v Praze, abbreviated as ČVUT. Translations to other languages are provided in the Rules of Organization (Annex 1).

Article 2

Academic community, academic rights and freedoms

- (1) The academic community at CTU as defined in Section 3 of Act No. 111/1998 Coll., on Higher Education Institutions and on Amendments and Supplements to some other Acts (The Higher Education Act), as amended (hereinafter referred to as the “Act”) performs self-governance of CTU through CTU self-governing bodies.
- (2) The academic freedoms and academic rights are regulated in Section 4 of the Act.
- (3) At CTU it is unacceptable to establish and organize activities of political parties and political movements. Trade unions, interest and professional civic associations (clubs) of employees and students may be established and work at CTU.

Article 3

Position of CTU

- (1) CTU is a legal person.
- (2) CTU carries out educational activity. CTU also carries out scientific and research, development and innovation, artistic and other creative activities (hereinafter referred to as “creative activity”).¹
- (3) In connection with the fulfilment of its basic objective pursuant to Para 3, CTU also carries out supplementary activities². Specialized supplementary activities are carried out at constituent parts that have the corresponding expertise.
- (4) CTU is divided into constituent parts, i.e. faculties, university institutes and other parts.
- (5) Internal regime at CTU is governed by the Act, this Statute of the Czech Technical University in Prague (hereinafter referred to as the “Statute”) and by other internal regulations of CTU³.

Part Two

AREAS OF SELF-GOVERNANCE AT CTU

Article 4

Mission of CTU, Strategic Plan

- (1) CTU as a technical university with an extraordinary mission with an impact on society as a whole is an autonomous entity which, in accordance with the principles of democracy and humanism, in accordance with valid legislation, in particular

 - b) Forms a basis for the development of strategic documents of the individual constituent parts of CTU,
 - c) Is used primarily for proposals of possible organisational changes, preparation of new study programmes and research proposals.
- (4) After it is discussed by the CTU Scientific Council (hereinafter referred to as “SC CTU”), the CTU Strategic Plan is approved by the CTU Academic Senate (hereinafter referred to as “AS CTU”) and subsequently by the CTU Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as “BoD CTU”).

Article 5

Educational activity and creative activity

- (1) The right to education is a student’s fundamental right and educational activity is a teacher’s fundamental duty, and the educational and creative activities as the fundamental right and duty of an academic worker are carried out within the scope of academic freedoms and based on creative activity.
- (2) Studies at CTU are implemented in the framework of study programmes and lifelong learning programmes⁵; the list of programme is published in the public section of the CTU⁶ website.
- (3) The process of approval of accreditations, areas of education and study programmes is governed by the CTU Rules of Accreditation⁷.
- (4) Faculties are responsible for the implementation of faculty programmes; in case of programmes outside faculties, all constituent parts participating in their implementation are responsible for the implementation.
- (5) Study programmes can be implemented
 - a) independently by one faculty,
 - b) independently by more faculties,
 - c) in a manner described in letters (a), (b), with participation of other faculties or university institutes;

This is without prejudice to cooperation with other subjects, provided this complies with legal regulations.

Article 6

Admission to studies

⁵ Section 2 of the Act.

⁶ Section 2, Para 1 (e) of the Act.

- (1) In order to be admitted to studies, the applicant must comply with the general conditions under Section 48 of the Act.
- (2) In case of faculty programmes, the faculty⁷ can stipulate further conditions for the admission to study programmes concerning specific knowledge, skills, talent or marks received at high school or university; these conditions are approved by the faculty's Academic Senate. In case of programmes outside faculties it is the rector who stipulates further conditions; these conditions are approved by AS CTU.
- (3) In case the nature of the study programme requires so, the studies may be conditioned on the applicant's medical fitness.
- (4) Compliance with further conditions under Para 2 and 3 shall be verified in the admission procedure, which consists of a written, oral or talent examination, or a combination thereof. The faculty in case of faculty programmes and the rector in case of programmes outside faculties may stipulate conditions under which the entrance examination or part of it may be waived.
- (5) The faculty in case of faculty programmes and the rector in case of programmes outside faculties may also stipulate the maximum number of admitted applicants. In this case, if all the conditions for study are met, the order according to the results achieved from the admission test or another criterion defined in advance is decisive.
- (6) The faculty in case of faculty programmes and the rector in case of programmes outside faculties shall publish in good time, at least four months in advance, the deadline for submitting applications to study, the information on how to submit applications, their compulsory and other supplements, the conditions for admission to study, the deadline for and manner of their verification. In case the admission procedure also includes an entrance examination, the form and general content of the entrance examination and the criteria for its evaluation are also published.
- (7) In case of admission to faculty programmes, the information pursuant to Para 6 shall be published in the public section of the faculty's website, and in case of programmes outside faculties it shall be published in the public section of the CTU website.
- (8) In case of faculty programmes, it is the dean who decides about the admission to study; in case of programmes outside faculties, it is the rector who takes this decision. The decision on the admission of an applicant must be issued within 30 days of the verification of the conditions for admission to studies.
- (9) After the applicant is notified about the decision, they have the right to inspect their file, or ask for a copy of the file in a manner specified in the information about the admission procedure.
- (10) The applicant may appeal against the decision within 30 days from the date of the notification of the result. In case of faculty programmes, the appeal shall be lodged with the dean, in case of programmes outside faculties, it shall be lodged with the rector, in a manner specified in the instruction that is part of the decision. The appeal proceedings are governed by the law and Act No. 500/2004 Coll., Code of Administrative Procedure, as amended.

Article 7

Implementation of studies in bachelor, master and doctoral study programmes

- (1) Studies in study programmes are implemented in accordance with the Study and Examination Rules for Students at CTU, an internal regulation of CTU⁸.

⁷ Section 21, Para 1 (e) of the Act.

⁸ Section 17, Para 1 (g) of the Act.

- (2) Bachelor and master study programmes are concluded by the state final examination (Sections 45, 46, 47 (b) and 53 of the Act), which includes the presentation and defence of the final thesis. Doctoral study programmes are concluded by the state doctoral examination and the presentation and defence of the dissertation thesis (Sections 47, 47 (b) and 53 of the Act). The conditions of the state examinations are stipulated by the Study and Examination Rules students at CTU.

Article 8 Lifelong learning

- (1) In the framework of lifelong learning, CTU provides lifelong learning programmes in accordance with Section 60 of the Act and the Code of Governing Lifelong Learning at CTU, an internal regulation of CTU. Education in lifelong learning programmes does not establish a legal status of student for the participant pursuant to the Act⁹.
- (2) The Code of Governing Lifelong Learning at CTU stipulates detailed conditions for the admission, course, completion of studies and the amount of the fee for studies in lifelong learning programmes.

Article 9 Study conditions for foreigners

- (1) For the purpose of this Statute, a foreigner is a natural person who is not a citizen of the Czech Republic.
- (2) Foreigners are admitted to study in study programmes implemented in the Czech language under the same conditions as applicants who are citizens of the Czech Republic. This is without prejudice to the right of the faculty or CTU to stipulate different conditions for admission for cases referred to in Section 49, Para 3 of the Act or for programmes implemented in a foreign language.
- (3) A foreigner applying to study in a study programme in the Czech language must demonstrate during the admission procedure the ability to communicate in the Czech language or the knowledge of the Czech language at B2 level as a minimum. A study applicant who is a citizen of the Slovak Republic can use the Slovak language instead of the Czech language.
- (4) The conditions applied to the study of foreigners in bachelor, master or doctoral study programmes implemented in the Czech language are the same as those applied to the study of students who are citizens of the Czech Republic.
- (5) The conditions for the admission and study of foreigners who arrive in the Czech Republic under inter-university or inter-faculty agreements or programmes are governed by the relevant valid agreements and conditions of the programmes.

Article 10 Academic degrees and documents on completing the studies

- (1) Graduates of bachelor study programmes are awarded academic degrees in compliance with the accreditation of the relevant study programme, or the authorization to implement a study programme within the institutionally accredited educational area.

⁹ Section 60, Para 3 of the Act.

- (2) Graduates of master study programmes are awarded academic degrees in compliance with the accreditation of the relevant study programme, or the authorization to implement a study programme within the institutionally accredited educational area.
- (3) Participants in lifelong learning study programmes are issued a certificate of completion by CTU.

Article 11

Fees associated with studies

- (1) Pursuant to Section 58 of the Act, CTU collects the following fees from students
 - a) Fee for acts related to the admission procedure which is set at a maximum of 20% of the base¹⁰ in the amount pursuant to Annex 5,
 - b) Fee
 - ba) For studies exceeding the standard period of study of the given bachelor or master study programme extended by one year, which is at least 1.5 times the base for each six months or part thereof of study¹¹. The amount of the fee is stipulated in Annex 5. The study period also includes the periods of all previous studies in bachelor and master study programmes that have not been properly completed pursuant to Section 45, Para 3, or Section 46, Para 3 of the Act, unless it qualifies as a previous study, after which the student properly completed a study programme of the same type. The period in which the student studied in such study programmes or in such study programmes in parallel with the current study programme is included in the period of study only once. However, the recognized period of parenthood shall be deducted from the total period of study calculated in accordance with this paragraph.
 - bb) For the study in a study programme implemented in a foreign language¹² for each semester or part thereof of studies the amount of which is stipulated in Annex 5.
- (2) The amount of the fees under Para 1 for the following academic year shall be published by the rector in the public section of the CTU website on the last day of the deadline for the submission of applications at the latest.
- (3) The fee under Para 1 (b) will be set out by the dean in case of faculty programmes and by the rector in case of study programmes outside faculties. The fee shall be set out without delay, but no sooner than on the applicable day when the obligation arises for the student to pay the study fee. In case the decisive data for the assessment of the fee is obtained from the Students' Register of other universities in the Czech Republic from the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports (hereinafter referred to as the "Ministry") ex-post, the fee will be immediately calculated for the student. The decision on the assessment of the fee is sent to the student to addressee only at least 90 days before the due date of the fee. Failure to pay the fee may be assessed in accordance with Section 64 of the Act or Article 13, Para 5 (b) of the Study and Examination Rules for Students at CTU.
- (4) The student may appeal against the decision on the assessment of the fee within 30 days of the day when the decision on the assessment of the fee under Para 3 was notified to them. The filing must include details of the person lodging the appeal, it must indicate the matter in which it is lodged and what is being proposed, it must indicate where the student sees the conflict with legal or internal rules or the incorrectness of the decision. An appeal against a decision on the assessment of a fee lodged within the period referred to in this paragraph shall always have a suspensory effect. In case of study in faculty programmes the appeal is lodged through the relevant dean to the rector, in which case the dean shall provide an opinion on the appeal and refer the appeal to the rector to decide on the matter within 30 days. In case of study programmes outside faculties the appeal is lodged to the rector.

¹⁰ Section 58, Para 1 of the Act.

¹¹ Section 58, Para 3 of the Act.

¹² Section 58, Para 4 of the Act.

- (5) Under Section 58, Para 7 of the Act, the rector may reduce, waive or postpone the due date of fees associated with studies based on a student's written request, accompanied by relevant documents, taking into account, in particular, the study, social or health situation of the student according to the principles, which are expressed by reasons enumerated in Annex 5. The application must expressly contain a request for remission or reduction of the fee, or postponement of the due date or payment in instalments, accompanied by appropriate and up-to-date documents, and is filed together with the appeal against the assessment of the fee under Para 4.
- (6) The fee referred to in Para 1 (a) is payable no later than on the date of filing of the application for study. The fee referred to in Para 1 (b) is payable on the date stipulated in the decision on the assessment of the relevant fee, or on the date stipulated in the decision on the appeal against the decision on the assessment of the fee. Fees associated with studies under Para 1 (b) are paid by a cashless payment to the account specified in the decision on the assessment of the fee, the fee for acts related to the admission procedure under Para 1 (a) are paid by a cashless payment to the account specified in the conditions of the admission procedure.
- (7) In case of faculty programmes the fees associated with studies referred to in Para 1 (a) and (bb) are the income of the faculty; in case of programmes outside faculties they are the income of CTU. The study fee referred to in Para 1 (ba) is the income of the CTU Scholarship Fund in accordance with Section 58, Para 6 of the Act.
- (8) In case CTU or the faculty have concluded an agreement on mutual free-of-charge provision of higher education with a foreign university, or have entered into other arrangements concerning fees associated with studies in the framework of implementation of joint study programmes, they shall proceed in accordance with such agreements.

Article 12

Payments for exceptional and non-standard administrative services

- (1) CTU collects payments for exceptional and non-standard administrative services that are not directly part of the implementation of study programmes and their use is not compulsory.
- (2) The amount of payments and the method of their payment shall be determined by the rector for each academic year following a discussion in the Rector's Collegium and in AS CTU.
- (3) The payments for exceptional and non-standard administrative services shall be payable on the dates set by the person who is the head of the relevant CTU constituent part.

Article 13

Recognition of foreign university degrees and qualifications

- (1) Upon request of a graduate of a foreign university, CTU issues a certificate of recognition of a university degree or a part thereof in the Czech Republic if a similar study programme is implemented at CTU. If, following a comparison of the two study programmes, it is found that they differ in major aspects, CTU shall reject the application for recognition.
- (2) CTU will issue certificates based on the knowledge of the quality of the relevant foreign university or on the scope of knowledge and skills proven by the university qualification.

- (3) The rector decides on the recognition of foreign university degrees and qualifications.
- (4) Pursuant to Section 90a of the Act, CTU collects a fee for services related to the proceedings on the application for recognition of foreign university degree and qualification in the amount of CZK 3,000. The applicant is obliged to pay the fee when submitting the application, the fee is the income of CTU and is payable to the relevant CTU account.

Article 14
Scholarships

Students are granted scholarships in accordance with the rules stipulated in the CTU Rules for Granting Scholarships, an internal regulation of CTU.

Article 15
Creative activity

- (1) Creative activity is a fundamental right and duty of academic workers at CTU¹³. It is carried out within the framework of academic freedom of creative activity as the basis of educational activity.
- (2) Creative activity at CTU is carried out in the areas mentioned in the statutes of the faculties, in the statutes or in the rules of organization of university institutes and in the rules of organization of other constituent parts developing creative activity, and in related and borderline areas. Faculties strive to create appropriate conditions for the creative activity of their academic staff, scientists and students.
- (3) CTU enters into legal relations with other entities with the aim to carry out and commercially use the results of creative activity, either directly or through its constituent parts.
- (4) Faculties, university institutes and other constituent parts also enter into legal relations under Para 3 on behalf of CTU in accordance with the Act and CTU Rules of Organization.

Article 16
International relations

- (1) CTU organizes and develops foreign relations (contacts) independently or through its constituent parts, primarily faculties and university institutes. Also civic associations (clubs) of employees, students and alumni, or employees and students on an individual level, can develop foreign relations at CTU.
- (2) Foreign relations are carried out mainly in the educational, creative and cultural areas.
- (3) Contractual relationships with foreign partners must comply with special regulations of international agreements binding the Czech Republic. Agreements can be signed only by individuals that are authorized to act on behalf of CTU in these matters.

Article 17
Annual reports, assessment of activity at CTU

- (1) Each year, the rector submits the Annual Report on the Activities of CTU and the Annual Report on the Economic Management of CTU to AS CTU for approval. Both annual reports are drawn based on materials supplied by the university and by the faculties, university institutes and other constituent parts of CTU. Prior to being submitted for approval to AS CTU, the Annual Report on the Activities is discussed by SC CTU.

- (2) Following the approval of AS CTU, the annual reports referred to in Para 1 are discussed by BoD CTU and are subsequently submitted to the Ministry and are published as a non-periodical publication.
- (3) The conclusions of the annual reports are utilised in the management activities and for the purposes of a possible specification of the CTU Strategic Plan.
- (4) A regular assessment of educational, creative and other related activities (hereinafter referred to as "internal assessment") is carried out in accordance with internal regulation of CTU¹⁴ and the CTU Strategic Plan.
- (5) Internal assessment is carried out annually by IEB CTU. The report on internal assessment is drawn annually by IEB CTU; the report is discussed by BoD CTU and subsequently submitted by the rector to AS CTU for approval.
- (6) Results of a questionnaire survey held each academic year among students are part of the assessment of educational activity.
- (7) In ensuring the quality of educational and creative activities and in performance of internal assessment, CTU acts in accordance with the Rules of the System of Quality Assurance of Educational, Creative and Other Related Activities at CTU; these rules are an internal regulation of CTU which, following an approval by IEB CTU and after discussion in SC CTU, is approved by AS CTU.

Part Three
BODIES OF CTU

Article 18
Division of CTU bodies

- (1) The self-governing academic bodies of CTU comprise
 - a) CTU Academic Senate,
 - b) Rector,
 - c) Scientific Council,
 - d) CTU Internal Evaluation Board,
 - e) CTU Disciplinary Commission.
- (2) Other CTU bodies comprise
 - a) CTU Board of Directors,
 - b) Registrar.

Article 19
CTU Academic Senate

¹⁴ Article 46, Para 2 (j) of the Statute – Rules of the system to ensure quality of educational, creative and other related activities and internal assessment of the quality of educational, creative and other related activities at CTU.

- (1) AS CTU is a self-governing representative body of CTU.
- (2) The status of AS CTU is governed by Sections 8 and 9 of the Act.
- (3) Members of AS CTU are elected by the members of the academic community of CTU¹⁵ from among its ranks.
- (4) AS CTU and its members report to the members of the academic community of CTU. The members of AS CTU protect the interests of CTU as a whole and in their decision-making are guided by their conscience. In the exercise of their office, the members of AS CTU are not bound by the opinion of the self-governing academic bodies of the faculty, nor the senior employees of other constituent parts of CTU, nor any other bodies or individuals.
- (5) Membership in AS CTU is honorary and cannot be executed through a proxy and is, apart from the offices listed in Section 8, Para 2 of the Act, also incompatible with the office of the chancellor of CTU.
- (6) The method of the election of the members of AS CTU is governed by the AS CTU Electoral Code, an internal regulation of CTU.
- (7) AS CTU decides about matters pursuant to Section 9, Para 1 of the Act, provides opinions in particular on matters pursuant to Section 9, Para 2 of the Act. The method of voting and the quorum of AS CTU are governed by the AS CTU Rules of Procedure, an internal regulation of CTU.
- (8) AS CTU also delegates representatives to the bodies of representation of universities and proposes members to IEB CTU in accordance with Section 12a, Para 3 of the Act.
- (9) The method of how AS CTU decides on a proposal to appoint rector and the consideration of a possible proposal to dismiss¹⁶ the rector is regulated by the AS CTU Rules of Procedure.
- (10) The term of office of individual members of AS CTU shall be no more than three years; further details are regulated by the Electoral Code of AS CTU. A student's membership in AS CTU is not automatically terminated after their conclusion of studies provided the student notifies the chair of AS CTU on the day of their state final examination in the latest in writing that they intend to continue their studies in another follow-up study programme at CTU and that they do not change their membership of the academic community that they represent at AS CTU, and no later than 120 days after the successful completion of the state final examination they enrol in this follow-up study programme. This provision applies mutatis mutandis for academic senates of faculties.
- (11) The CTU Rector's Office is responsible for ensuring material resources for AS CTU.

Article 20
Rector

- (1) The rector is the head of CTU, the status of the rector is regulated by Section 10 of the Act.
- (2) The rector decides and acts in matters related to CTU, unless the Act or this Statute stipulate otherwise. In cases when a specific regulation anticipates competence of a statutory body, it is carried out by the rector, unless the Act or this Statute stipulate otherwise.
- (3) In the areas stipulated in the Act and the Statute, the rector issues, following an approval by AS CTU and following a registration by the Ministry, internal regulations of CTU. In addition, within their autonomous competence, the rector issues orders, instructions, measures, directives, or ¹⁵ Section 8, Para 1 of the Act.

¹⁶ Section 9, Para 1 (h) of the Act.

takes other decisions for which they are authorized by the Act and the Statute.

- (4) The dean appoints and dismisses, in particular
 - a) Deans pursuant to Section 28, Para 2 and 3 of the Act,
 - b) Vice-Rectors pursuant to Section 10, Para 4 of the Act,
 - c) Directors of university institutes pursuant to Section 34, Para 3 of the Act.
 - d) Registrar pursuant to Section 16, Para 2 of the Act.
- (5) Vice-rectors stand in for the rector in the scope determined by the rector. The rector shall authorize one of the vice-rectors to stand in for them to the full extent in their absence.
- (6) The scope of the activity of vice-rectors is defined as follows
 - Bachelor and master studies,
 - Science, creative activity and doctoral studies,
 - International relations,
 - Development and strategy,
 - Construction.
- (7) The rector will determine in a rector's order the competence of vice-rectors within the scope of their activity, including the determination of the CTU departments that they are in charge of.
- (8) Within their determined scope of activity, vice-rectors are authorized to act on behalf of CTU in legal relationships in the scope of authorization determined by the rector. They are responsible for their activity to the rector.

Article 21 CTU Scientific Council

- (1) The chair of SC CTU is the rector, who appoints and dismisses members of SC CTU, following a prior approval¹⁷ by AS CTU and pursuant to the principles set out in Section 11 of the Act. Members of SC CTU cannot act through proxies. When appointing members of SC CTU, the rector ensures that all main areas of educational and creative activity implemented at CTU are represented. SC CTU has a maximum of 45 members, of which at least a third are individuals who are not members of the academic community of CTU¹⁸. In justified cases, the rector may also appoint extraordinary members of SC CTU, following a prior approval by AS CTU.
- (2) SC CTU competence includes consideration and approval of intentions and proposals and other competences listed in Section 12 of the Act, with the exception of competence entrusted to IEB in accordance with Section 12, Para 3 of the Act. SC CTU comments on matters submitted to it by the rector¹⁹.

In addition, SC CTU comments in particular on proposals to

- a) Award the doctor honoris causa degree (abbreviated as "dr. h. c., placed after the name) – a honorary doctorate at CTU,
- b) Appoint emeritus professors,
- c) Appoint visiting professors,

¹⁷ Section 9, Para 1 (f) of the Act.

¹⁸Section 11, Para 2 of the Act.

¹⁹ Section 12, Para 2 of the Act.

- d) Appoint members of specialization committees of doctoral study programmes outside faculties,
 - e) Appoint members of the CTU Grant Committee,
 - f) Award the Felber's Medal,
 - g) On a proposal of the Rules of Habilitation Proceedings and Proceedings to Appoint Professors at CTU or on a proposal to amend the Rules,
 - h) Stipulate Recommended Aspects of Assessment and Criteria, issued by the rector in a rector's measure.
- (3) SC CTU's term of office is four years.
- (4) Prior to the expiration of their term of office, a member of SC CTU may give up their SC CTU membership by a written notice delivered to the rector. The rector appoints a new member following a prior approval by AS CTU to take their place or a place of a dismissed member of SC CTU according to the principles stated in Section 11 of the Act.
- (5) The CTU Rector's Office is responsible for ensuring material and other resources for SC CTU.
- (6) The convention of SC CTU, the method of the decision-making and other procedural issues concerning its conduct are regulated by the SC CTU Rules of Procedure, an internal regulation of CTU.
- (7) Extraordinary members of SC CTU receive all written documents like the SC CTU members and have the right to participate in all meetings of SC CTU (including parts of SC CTU meetings held behind closed doors) in an advisory capacity.

Article 22

CTU Internal Evaluation Board

- (1) The number of members of IEB CTU is determined by the Statute of the Internal Evaluation Board at CTU, an internal regulation of CTU. The rector is the chair of IEB CTU. The rector shall appoint a vice-chair of IEB CTU from among the academic staff at CTU who are professors or associate professors at CTU. The chair of AS CTU is a member of IEB CTU. The other members of IEB CTU are appointed by the rector pursuant to Section 12a, Para 3 of the Act. Proposals for the appointment or dismissal of members of IEB CTU shall be discussed by the rector in SC CTU.²⁰ The members of IEB CTU are appointed and dismissed by the rector following a prior approval by AS CTU²¹.
- (2) IEB CTU carries out activities listed in Section 12a, Para 4 (a) to (d) of the Act, other activities in the scope stipulated by the Statute²² and partly in connection with the authorization for the implementation of study programmes in the framework of an institutionally accredited area of education, by delegation, the competence of IEB CTU as referred to in Section 12, Para 1 (b), (c), and (e) of the Act, which is hereby entrusted to it by the Statute, within the meaning of Section 12, Article 3 of the Act, and comments on other matters submitted to it by the rector.
- (3) IEB CTU is responsible for the agenda of accreditations of study programmes and the agenda of institutional accreditations; this is without prejudice to the competence of SC CTU.
- (4) The CTU Rector's Office is responsible for ensuring material and other resources for IEB CTU.

²⁰ Section 25, Para 1 (i) of the Act.

²¹ Section 9, Para 1 (f) of the Act.

²² Section 12a, Para 4 (e) of the Act, and Article 5 of the Statute.

Article 23
CTU Disciplinary Commission

- (1) Members of the Disciplinary Commission are appointed and dismissed by the rector in accordance with Section 3, Para 1 (f) and Section 13 of the Act following a prior approval by AS CTU. This commission discusses disciplinary offences conducted by students of CTU.
- (2) Disciplinary proceedings are governed by Sections 64 to 69 of the Act.
- (3) Proceedings and hearings before the CTU Disciplinary Commission are conducted in accordance with the Disciplinary Code for Students at CTU, an internal regulation of CTU.

Article 24
CTU Board of Directors

- (1) BoD CTU has 15 members that are appointed and dismissed by the Minister of Youth, Education and Sports (hereinafter referred to as the "Minister") following consultation with the rector.

CTU RULES OF ECONOMIC MANAGEMENT

Article 1 General provisions

- (1) In the field of economic management, CTU must comply with the Act, other generally binding legal regulations, internal regulations of CTU and orders and directives issued by CTU (hereinafter referred to as “other regulations of CTU”).
- (2) In its financial management, CTU must also comply with decisions or agreements on the provision of contributions and subsidies from the state budget or from other public budgets, which determine their purpose, manner of use and settlement.

Article 2 Economic management

- (1) The budget of CTU for one calendar year must not have a deficit and CTU must comply with this budget in the given period. The resources of the CTU budget, including the use of CTU funds in accordance with the Act, are used only to finance the activities for which CTU was established.
- (2) The basic resource for the economic management is the contribution from the state budget for the implementation of study programmes and lifelong learning programmes, related scientific, research, development, artistic or other creative activity (hereinafter referred to as the “contribution”) and a subsidy from the state budget (hereinafter referred to as the “subsidy”) for the development of CTU. CTU is entitled to receive the contribution and the subsidy. CTU as a public university may also receive subsidies for accommodation and boarding of students.
- (3) The contribution and the subsidy are determined and provided to CTU by the Ministry following a decision based on the published rules, which are annually updated and discussed with the representatives of universities (Section 92, Para of the Act).
- (4) CTU as a public university, which mainly uses resources provided from the state budget, is obliged to carry out its activities economically and efficiently, use these resources in accordance with special regulations³³ based on a decision on provision of the contribution and subsidies pursuant to the Act and in accordance with in-kind contribution. Pursuant to Section 20, Para 6 of the Act, the rector is responsible for the efficient use of contributions and subsidies and for the settlement of subsidies with the state budget and for proper management of the property.
- (5) All constituent parts of CTU are obliged to use the property for the fulfilment of tasks in educational and scientific, research, development, artistic or other creative activity. Pursuant to the Act, they can also use it for supplementary activities.
- (6) All constituent parts of CTU are obliged to keep proper records of the property and to comply with the Act, other generally binding legal regulations and other CTU regulations when dealing with it.

³³ E.g. Act No. 218/2000 Coll., on Budgetary Rules, as amended; Regulation No. 560/2006 Coll., on Participation of the State Budget in Financing Asset Renewal Programmes, as amended; Act No. 130/2002 Coll., on Support of Research, Experimental Development and Innovation from Public Funds and on Amendment to Some Related Acts (Act on Support of Research, Experimental Development and Innovation), as amended.

- (7) After the end of the calendar year, CTU primarily settles the subsidy (contribution) with the state budget in accordance with the rules established by the Ministry and settles other revenues from other providers according to their rules and requirements.

Article 3
Bookkeeping

- (1) CTU keeps the books as one accounting unit in accordance with general accounting regulations.³⁴
- (2) In its books, CTU is obliged to separate costs and revenues associated with the supplementary activity.
- (3) CTU prepares annual financial statements, which include the economic results of individual constituent parts.

Article 4
Income and revenues of CTU

- (1) CTU receives financial resources to ensure its regular activity primarily
- a) From the contribution,
 - b) From a non-investment subsidy,
 - c) From fees associated with studies,
 - d) From revenues from property,
 - e) From other income from the state budget, state funds, the National Fund, from budgets of municipalities and regions and from the budget of the European Union,
 - f) From revenues from supplementary activity,
 - g) From income from donations and inheritance, from income from foundations and endowment funds,
 - h) By joining financial resources based on a Partnership Agreement,
 - i) From own created funds,
 - j) From loans from banks or other financial institutions,
 - k) From foreign projects,
 - l) From revenues from accommodation and boarding of students and related services.
- (2) CTU receives financial resources to ensure investment activity primarily
- a) From individual or systematic contributions and subsidies,
 - b) From public budgets and state funds,
 - c) From own funds for renewal of capital goods,

³⁴ E.g. Act. No. 563/1991 Coll., on Accountancy, as amended; Decree No. 506/2002 Coll. implementing some provisions of Act No. 563/1991 Coll., on Accountancy, as amended, for accounting units which are not principally engaged in doing business if they keep double-entry accounting records, as amended, Czech Accounting Standards for Accounting Units that keep accounting records pursuant to Decree No. 504/2002 Coll., as amended.

- d) By joining financial resources based on a Partnership Agreement,
 - e) From loans from banks or other financial institutions,
 - f) From donations and inheritance determined for acquisition of fixed assets,
 - g) From foreign projects.
- (3) Revenues from property
- a) Rent revenues are revenues from supplementary activity of CTU and their use is regulated by another CTU regulation,
 - b) Revenues from sales of movable assets are an income of faculties and other constituent parts where the assets are registered,
 - c) Revenues from sales of real estate are an income of CTU and their use is regulated by another CTU regulation,
 - d) Revenues from financial assets (primarily from a pooled account) are an income of the faculty or other constituent part or a group thereof that form an accountancy office in the framework of which the relevant accounts were set up.
- (4) The involvement of revenues from the state budget other than those referred to in Para 1 and 2, of revenues from state funds, budgets of municipalities and the budget of the European Union in the CTU budget or in partial budgets of constituent parts of CTU is governed by another CTU regulation.
- (5) Revenues from supplementary activities (with the exception of rents) shall be used to improve the conditions of the operation of the constituent parts of CTU where they were carried out.
- (6) Revenues that are not referred to in Para 3 are resources generated by CTU's own activities and can be used to finance its activities. If the revenue is allocated for a specific purpose based on an agreement, the absorption of these funds by CTU must comply with this agreement.
- (7) Capital obtained from individual or systematic subsidies is strictly purpose-bound and subject to annual settlement.

Article 5

Financial funds, their sources and use

- (1) Pursuant to the Act, CTU shall establish the following funds
- a) Reserve fund to cover losses in the next accounting periods,
 - b) Fund for renewal of capital goods,
 - c) Scholarship fund,
 - d) Fund for bonuses,
 - e) Fund of earmarked financial resources,

- c) To pay instalments of investment loans,
- d) As a supplementary source of financing of repairs and maintenance in order to ensure investment needs of CTU.

(4) The scholarship fund is created from

- a) Study fees (with the exception of study fees assessed for students studying in a study programme in a foreign language),
- b) Transfers of tax-deductible expenditures according to a special regulation.³⁵

The resources in the fund can be used to pay out scholarships according to the CTU Rules for Granting Scholarships. The use of the fund shall be registered in revenues and expenses.

(5) The fund for bonuses is created from a proportion of the after-tax profit.

Resources in the fund can be used in accordance with the CTU Internal Salary Rules. The use of the fund shall be registered in revenues and expenses.

(6) The fund of earmarked financial resources is created from

- a) Earmarked donations with the exception of donations earmarked for the acquisition and technical appreciation of fixed assets,
- b) Earmarked financial resources from abroad,
- c) CTU can transfer earmarked public funds, including funds for special-purpose and institutional support of research and development from public funds that CTU was not able to use in the financial year in which they were provided, to the fund of earmarked financial resources in the amount of up to 5% of the amount of earmarked public funds provided to CTU for individual research and development projects or research proposals in the given calendar year; in case of other type of support from public funds, in the amount of up to 5% of the amount of this support provided to CTU in the given calendar year. CTU shall notify the provider of the earmarked financial resources about the transfer thereof in writing.

CTU can use the resources in the fund of earmarked financial resources only for the purpose for which they were provided.

(7) CTU can create the social fund by a basic allocation charged to the CTU expenses in the amount of up to 2% of the annual amount of CTU expenditures used for wages, wage compensation and on-call time bonuses. The percentage of funds for the creation of the social fund for each calendar year according to individual sources shall be determined by the rector of CTU on 31 October of the previous year.

³⁵ Section 37, Para 2 (zr) of Act No. 586/1992 Coll., on Income Tax, as amended.

The resources in the CTU social fund can be used for

- a) Contributions to employees' voluntary pension funds with a state contribution, or a part thereof,
- b) Contributions to employees to cover the interest payments on a loan to acquire a flat,
- c) Special-purpose contributions to employees,
- d) Contributions for care for former employees (pensioners).

The CTU registrar shall draw the budget of the social fund, AS CTU shall approve the budget as part of the approval process of the CTU budget for the current year. No right exists to the provision of a contribution or other claims from the social fund.

The manner and conditions for the use of the social fund under letter (a) to (d) are regulated by other CTU regulations.

- (8) The fund for operation purposes is created from
 - a) A proportion of the after-tax profit,
 - b) The balance of the contribution under Article 4, Para 1 (a) as of 31 December of the current year.
- (9) The fund for operation purposes can only be used for financing through the budget.
- (10) After-tax profit is allocated by the rector into the reserve fund, the fund for renewal of capital goods and the fund for operational purposes provided any losses from previous periods have been settled.
- (11) Transfers may be made between the reserve fund, the fund for renewal of capital goods, the fund for bonuses and the fund for operational purposes. In case of faculties the transfers are approved by the deans, in case of other constituent parts they are approved by the rector.

Article 6

- (1) CTU is authorized to receive loans, repayable financial assistance and loans for investments and operating expenses, provided by accepting them no claims to the state budget arise and provided their return is secured within the economic management of CTU. The state is not liable for CTU's obligations.
- (2) CTU as a public university may acquire only securities issued by the state or securities the repayment of which is guaranteed by the state or securities of a business company in which CTU as a public university has put assets.
- (3) Credits, loans or purchase of securities are negotiated on behalf of CTU by the rector or a person authorized by the rector.
- (4) CTU may provide
 - a) membership fees to institutions and associations in the Czech Republic and abroad in which CTU is a member,
 - b) Contributions to civic associations that are active in the field of education, sport or environmental protection.
- (5) Penalty payments shall be included in CTU costs.³⁶

³⁶ Section 25 of CNC Act No. 586/1992 Coll., on Income Tax, as amended.

Article 7

Supplementary activity

- (1) Within its supplementary activity, CTU performs activities connected to its educational and scientific, research, development, artistic or other creative activity or activity aimed at more efficient use of human resources and property against payment. The supplementary activity must not compromise the quality, scope and availability of activities for the implementation of which CTU was established as a public university.
- (2) CTU may use its own property for supplementary activity in accordance with Section 20, Para 1 of the Act.
- (3) The CTU economic management related to supplementary activity is regulated by another regulation of CTU.
- (4) Supplementary activity is kept separately in the accounts (Article 3, Para 2).

Article 8

Financing of facilities

- (1) CTU covers capital and current expenditures of its facilities such as dormitories and canteens, hostels, facilities for education of youth and adults, libraries, gyms and other sports and cultural facilities, provided they are used by employees or students at CTU, in accordance with the Act, the rules of the use of the subsidy, the contribution and with the budget of CTU.
- (2) CTU covers capital and current expenditures of other facilities used in order to ensure the operation of CTU in accordance with the Act, the rules of the use of the subsidy, the contribution and with budget of CTU.
- (3) If CTU uses the facilities together with another person, it shares the costs or the revenues according to the ratios of use agreed in the agreement. It can be agreed in the agreement that the payment for the proportion of the use of the facility can be made as a lump sum.

Article 9

Provision of contribution to employees

- (1) CTU is entitled to cover the operation of its catering facilities that provide catering to CTU employees with one meal a day, excluding the price of the food.
- (2) CTU shall pay a contribution to employees who eat in other catering facilities based on an agreement on canteen services, or who use lunch tickets to buy lunch to pay for one meal per day in the amount of up to 55% of the price, but up to a maximum of 50% of the allowance provided in accordance with a special directive to CTU staff on domestic business trips lasting from 5 to 12 hours.
- (3) CTU is not entitled to pay a contribution for catering to students; however, it is entitled to pay for the operation of its catering facilities that provide catering to students in the form of two meals a day in the amount up to the actual costs, excluding the calculated average price of the ingredients.
- (4) Employees are entitled to the employer's contribution for catering only on days of work, with the exception of business trips during which the employee is provided with an allowance pursuant to a special regulation.³⁷ Employees are not entitled to the allowance during the period of leave, incapacity or obstacles on the part of the employee and the employer.

Article 10

Economic management of faculties and other constituent parts

- (1) Economic management of faculties and other constituent parts is governed by the provisions of these rules of economic management, own internal regulations, other generally binding legal regulations and other regulations of CTU.
- (2) In their economic management, faculties and other constituent parts primarily use the funds allocated to them in the CTU budget according to the rules that are approved annually by AS CTU.
- (3) Pursuant to other regulations of CTU, faculties and other constituent parts or their groups (accountancy offices) shall prepare partial budgets for the calendar year that must not have a deficit.
- (4) In their economic management, accountancy offices primarily use the funds allocated to them in the CTU budget and other financial resources generated by their own activity, including supplementary activity, in accordance with the Act, other generally binding legal regulations and other regulations of CTU.
- (5) Accountancy offices are responsible to the rector for their economic management. The results of their economic management (profit or loss) are published in the annual financial statements of CTU.
- (6) The profit or loss and the settlement with the tax office (value added tax, corporate tax) are processed by CTU as a whole.
- (7) The settlement of profit or loss is governed by another regulation of CTU.
- (8) In the accounts, an auxiliary accountancy office "CTU" is set up where joint operations of all accountancy offices of CTU are registered.

³⁷ Sections 156 to 164 of Act No. 262/2006 Coll., the Labour Code, as amended.

* In case the critical moment (student turning 26 in reason no. 3, or the child turning 3 in reason no. 4) takes place in the course of the period of assessment, the fee is calculated according to the number of days before the critical moment.

 The amount of the remission directly correlates with the number of days studied in a bachelor study programme in the Czech Republic according to the entry in the registry office.

Notes:

- a) An appeal against the assessment of a fee together with a request for remission, reduction of a fee or postponement of the due date cannot be granted despite the presentation of evidence of the abovementioned reasons if the deadline for filing an appeal against the assessment of the fee has been missed. The missing of the deadline can be pardoned provided a request to pardon the missing of the deadline is filed together with the delayed appeal within 15 days after the obstacle that prevented the filing of the appeal was removed, and provided the student is able to prove that the obstacle were serious reasons that occurred without any fault on the student's part.
- b) Students that have committed a disciplinary offense cannot apply for a reduction of the fee for reasons 9 to 18.
- c) In the event of concurrence of multiple reasons, the reduction or remission of the fee shall be assessed individually taking into account the abovementioned limits.
- d) The study fee is assessed for each study in each bachelor or master study programme independently; also appeals against the assessment of the fee and assessment of the application for remission or reduction of the fee and the postponement of the due date are assessed individually.”.
